Tasting notes

The Rapeneau family is the largest independent vineyard owner and producer of Champagne, passing down their expertise through four generations. The Non Vintage Brut Rosé is salmon pink in colour with a pretty nose of crisp red apples, candied peel and roses. Great depth and power on the palate with good length and a complex finish, it displays the quality hallmarks of this exceptional House.

About the producer

The Rapeneau family hail from the Marne region and have been specialists in the wine trade since early in the 19th Century. The House now owns a large expanse of vineyards planted with all three Champagne vines. Years of experience and expertise have resulted in the excellent champagnes that the Rapeneau family produce year after year.
